ECC Wins SBA's Dwight D. Eisenhower Award for Excellence, 2008

ECC has been named as the winner of the prestigious Dwight D. Eisenhower Award for Excellence by the Small Business Administration (SBA). This award is presented to large business prime contractors that have excelled at using small businesses as suppliers and subcontractors. The award honors companies in five categories, including construction, manufacturing, research and development, service and utilities. ECC has been selected as the 2008 winner in the Service category. The award will be given to ECC at a formal awards presentation in Washington DC April 20, as a part of SBA's National Small Business Week. Created in 1991 and named for the president under whom the SBA was founded, the Eisenhower Award honors large federal contractors that have excelled in their utilization of small businesses as suppliers and subcontractors. Past winners of the award include Boeing, Lockheed Martin, SAIC, CH2MHill, Foster Wheeler, and other widely recognized large businesses.

PWT Wins EPA Contract

Pacific Western Technologies, Ltd. (PWT) was awarded a $9.1 million, 5-year contract by the Environmental Protection Agency to provide technical oversight support to Region 8 for the closure of the Rocky Mountain Arsenal (RMA). Services include review of engineering designs, oversight of field construction activities, public involvement, groundwater monitoring, data management, 5-year review, geospatial mapping and quality assurance. PWT supported EPA on the previous 5-year RMA contract performing oversight of more than 65 active environmental remediation projects, including cleanup and transfer of portions of the RMA site to the U.S. Fish and Wildlife Service.
